EXTRACTS FROM THE HOUSE-TO-HOUSE COLLECTIONS ACT 1939

Section 1. Charitable collections from house-to-house to be licensed

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, no collection for a charitable purpose shall be made unless the requirements of this Act as to a licence for the promotion thereof are satisfied.
- (2) If a person promotes a collection for a charitable purpose, and a collection for that purpose is made in any locality pursuant to his promotion, then, unless there is in force, throughout the period during which the collection is made in that locality, a licence authorizing him, or authorizing another under whose authority he acts, to promote a collection therein for that purpose, he shall be guilty of an offence.
- (3) If a person acts as a collector in any locality for the purposes of a collection for a charitable purpose, then, unless there is in force at all times when he so acts a licence authorising a promoter under whose authority he acts, or authorising the collector himself, to promote a collection therein for that purpose, he shall be guilty of an offence.

Section 2. Licences

- (1) Where a person who is promoting or proposes to promote a collection in any locality for a charitable purpose makes to the licensing authority for the area comprising that locality an application in the prescribed manner specifying the purpose of the collection and the locality (whether being the whole of the area of the authority or a part thereof) within which the collection is to be made and furnishes them with the prescribed information, the authority shall, subject to the following provisions of this section grant to him a licence authorising him to promote a collection within that locality for that purpose.
- (2) A licence shall be granted for such period, not being longer than twelve months, as may be specified in the application and shall, unless it is previously revoked, remain in force for the period specified.

- (2) Any order made under this section may be revoked or varied by a subsequent order made by the Secretary of State.

Section 5. Unauthorised use of badges, etc.

If any person in connection with any appeal made by him to the public in association with a representation that the appeal is for a charitable purpose, displays or uses:

- (a) a prescribed badge, or a prescribed certificate of authority, not being a badge or certificate for the time being held by him for the purposes of the appeal pursuant to regulations made under this Act, or
- (b) any badge or device, or any certificate or other document, so nearly resembling a prescribed badge or, as the case may be, a prescribed certificate of authority to be calculated to deceive, he shall be guilty of an offence.

Section 6. Collector to give name, etc. to police on demand

A police constable may require any person whom he believes to be acting as a collector for the purposes of a collection for a charitable purpose to declare to him immediately his name and address and to sign his name and if any person fails to comply with a requirement duly made to him under this section, he shall be guilty of an offence.
